

I would like to make a plea to the FCC to not weaken Indiana's Do Not Call law by allowing the banking community to make sales calls to our constituents.

We have very busy lives and treasure a quiet evening at home with no sales calls. It is very aggravating to sit down to an evening meal only to be disturbed by a sales call.

Please do not subject us to the unwanted calls we could receive if Indiana's Do Not Call law is weakened!!!